KentHR
Human Resources Specialists

We provide a variety of HR solutions to help you manage your people, by listening to your needs and aligning our strategy to your goals. Our specialist HR consultants can provide a variety of support options for all types of organisations, including an outsourced HR management function, day to day advice and project support, all of which can be tailored to your individual needs. We provide the expertise that you need when you need it without incurring expense when you don't.

Our team of highly experienced HR consultants have held operational and strategic senior HR manager positions in a variety of sectors. They are commercial HR professionals who get on well with people at all levels and have a practical, hands on approach to their work. Our consultants are all members of the Chartered Institute of Personnel and Development and individually hold other professional qualifications such as TCM accredited mediator.
